

SEMI WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1893.

NO. 102

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Col. Jim "Toad" West, of Chicago, is here on a visit to his parents.

—Mr. E. A. Pascoe has received news of the death of his father, which occurred at Hamburg.

—Baton & West have rented the store room adjoining them and have had large doors cut between them, thus making one of the most convenient and largest stores in town.

—Daniel Webster once said, in reply to a question, that the greatest thought that ever occupied his mind was his individual responsibility to God. The greatest thought of the average politician of to-day is his individual importance.

—On next Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock Miss Lena Totten will be united in marriage to Mr. James Dunn. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's parents, on Crab Orchard street, after which a reception will be given at the home of the groom.

—The four prisoners confined in the county jail made an unsuccessful attempt to escape Thursday night, by cutting the bars with saws made from case knives which they had stolen from the wainscots on which their meals were served. It will be a cold day indeed when "Big Injun" Rothwell lets a prisoner escape from his jail.

—Misses Jennie and Marie Warren have returned to Stanford. Misses Bessie Marksby and Katie Simpson visited Miss Lizzie Simpson Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. A. H. Rice left for Louisville Monday where she will visit Mrs. O. H. Irvine. Mrs. Will Hutchings returned to Stanford Saturday. Mr. Elijah Selridge and wife have returned to Cincinnati. Miss Ella Meyers has returned from a visit to Paint Lick.

—It is obvious that Congress is becoming to all intents and purposes an unwieldy body, not to say an expensive one. Three hundred and sixty-six members, drawing nearly two millions a year out of the public treasury, with nothing to show that they have done anything for the public good beyond the passage of a few general appropriation bills, and a number of resolutions of respect to departed members and deceased public functionaries. The only limitations upon the power of Congress to regulate the number of Representatives in the House are that it shall not exceed one for every 30,000 inhabitants, and that each State shall have at least one member. It is the opinion of men who have made this question a study that it would be for the good of the public to reduce the number of Representatives in the House; and that if it should be decided to have only one or two from each State that the business would be transacted more satisfactorily, more promptly, and at an immense saving in the way of salaries. By the recent apportionment bill 24 members have been added to the House, carrying an addition to the annual appropriation bill of about $130,000. Mr. Madison said: "The more multitudinous a representative assembly is, the more it will partake of the infirmities incident to collective meetings of the people. Ignorance will be the dupe of cunning and passion the slave of sophistry and declamation. The people can never err more than in supposing that by multiplying their representatives beyond a certain limit they strengthen the barrier against a government of a few. Experience will forever admonish them that, on the contrary, after securing a sufficient number for the purposes of safety of local information and of diffusive sympathy with the whole society, they will counteract their own views by every addition to their representatives." They are presumed to assemble for the benefit of the people; and yet the people have about as much influence in that august body, as if they had nothing to do in their selection. The bills that have been passed by the late Congress for the relief of citizens who have just claims against the government could be counted on your fingers. All that is necessary to obstruct the course of public justice is for some wiseacre posing as a watch-dog of the treasury to rise in his seat and object to the consideration of a bill, and that is the end of it. To show their constituents that they are doing something, each must have his say in a printed speech and the time consumed by the immortal 356 is simply enormous. It is evident that a smaller body of representatives would accomplish more in a given time, and thereby save an unnecessary outlay in the salaries that are taken off the treasury.

—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee has been invited to take command of the Third Division of Military in the Cleveland inaugural parade. This division will be composed of the Virginia troops, the New York and Maryland troops, including the Seventh New York and the fifth Maryland Regiments, and all the other State troops. General Lee acted in the same capacity in the first inaugural of Cleveland.

—G. D. Wilcox, the well-known contractor and builder, of Lexington, is dead. In the 48 years of business career he built 75 per cent. of the brick buildings in that city.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—There was a girl baby born at J. B. Oakley's last Thursday and one at Bob Barnes' on Friday.

—An old man by the name of Engle fell off the rear platform of a train at Lily Friday and broke his leg.

—A horse hitched to a light wagon belonging to Blind Bill Magee ran off on the street Friday and tore down a street lamp at Fitzgerald street. The wagon was demolished.

—The democrats of Laurel county met in mass convention Monday and adopted unanimously resolutions in favor of Col. Frank Riley for the U. S. marshalship of Kentucky.

—I learn to day that the M. E. church South has bought property from A. R. Dyche, almost opposite the Echo office, and will build there instead of on the ground of C. H. Moses.

—Judge Clark has issued a rule against the county court, to show cause why a new county jail shall not be built, and why several of the needless out-houses shall not be removed from the public square.

—The only felony case with a conviction in the present circuit court was against E. B. Taylor, who got one year in the penitentiary for obtaining goods under false pretenses. He has applied for a new trial.

—Ella Pearl, the writer's little daughter, came near being burned to death Saturday evening, by her clothes catching fire at a grate. The front of her apron and dress were almost burned off of her, but timely assistance prevented any severe burns.

—The following marriage licenses have been issued in Feb., 1893: Lorenzo Evans and Liza Hibbard; Wilson Garland and Elvira Lawson; Samuel Young and Sallie Lenocks; Andrew Johnson and Cinda Barnett; Grant Bailey and Maggie Feltner; J. L. Morton and Tillie Bustle; Calvin Warren and Ellen Fonder; James Price and Samantha J. Helton; George Early and Mary E. Reynolds; F. F. Bryant and Mary Sweeney; Lee Thomas and Clarice J. Fonder; Wm. Osborn and Lucinda Cathers.

—Col. W. G. Welch is back again this week on legal business. Following are the names of the local attorneys practicing before the present circuit court, the number being 25: Judge R. Boyd, C. R. Brock, E. K. Wilson, H. C. Eversole, P. C. Eversole, W. S. Jackson, C. A. Jackson, R. B. Craft, P. F. Stillings, R. L. Ewell, J. D. Smith, C. B. Faris, Edward Parker, W. L. Brown, Henry Young, George Young, Robert Young, R. R. Bowling, James Sparks, W. R. Ramsey, T. F. Carnifax, W. T. Moran, W. A. Litton, W. B. Catching absent.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Miss Sallie A. Reid is lying at the point of death at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Ben P. Hawkins, of the Moreland neighborhood.

—Will Rout rented from T. L. Carpenter 40 acres of corn ground; besides this he has 80 acres of wheat. Will is a hustler and instead of "going west to grow up with the country," he is growing up right in among his native hills and growing to be in fine circumstances, too.

—The entertainment at Christian College will come off on the evening of the 24th instead of the 23d. The supper by the band will be given the same evening at Mrs. Drye's hotel, and the pupils of the Academy will render a few songs, recitations, etc., at Presbyterian church on the evening of the 23d. It is a little singular and I think a little unfortunate, too, that our people in trying to celebrate the 23d left it entirely off their programme.

To-morrow is the anniversary of the birth of the boy who couldn't tell a lie, and who was afterwards "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen." That cherry tree incident may be a myth, or may be overdrawn, but it has pointed many a moral and adorned many a tale for the good of the generations past and present.

—A driving snow storm kept the ducks away Saturday in the Maryland hunt, but President Harrison determined not to be "skunked," and got a crack at a rabbit and brought him down. It is against the laws of the State to shoot rabbits at this time of the year, and the President was liable to arrest and fine.

—Both Houses of the Wyoming Legislature adopted a resolution declaring that woman suffrage had accomplished great good there having secured "orderly elections, pure politics and a remarkable degree of civilization and public order."

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Miss Mayme McGuire has returned from a lengthy stay at Paint Lick, bringing with her one of that town's fairest young ladies, Miss Maggie Cochran, who will visit our town awhile.

—Our farmers are getting ready for plowing and spring work. McClure & Holman have bought all the surplus hogs in this end of the county, both for shipping and supplying our farmers.

—The family of J. S. Fish left for California last Thursday. A Danville man, whose name we failed to learn, has rented the farm for five years, at $300 per year. Mr. Fish will have a clearance sale Saturday, Feb. 25.

—The Stanford attorneys were here to take depositions in the divorce case of Mrs. Maggie James against George Lee James, but we are rejoiced to tell you that the suit was withdrawn and these two will live as God intended they should. May His blessing attend their reunion and their future be brighter than their past. Their many friends will be glad to hear of their decision.

—The Masons will give a supper Saturday night for the benefit of the Masonic Orphans' Home in Louisville. Masons and everybody in this and adjoining counties are invited to cast their mites toward helping the grandest of our institutions, where hundreds of little fatherless children are being taught and cared for. Crowd the supper-room, citizens, and you will receive your reward.

—The members of the W. C. T. U. held a "Mothers' Meeting" at the residence of Mrs. W. T. Stephenson Friday night, in which the little ones participated with great interest. We look forward to great results from these meetings, believing in the old proverb, "As the twig is bent," &c. Our young friend Dr. Beazley is exerting his talent to organizing a W. C. T. U. at McKinney. Too much praise cannot be given him for this effort. So few young men are bold enough to come forward and make a bold stroke for right! How much more to his credit is this work, than to be an agent for whisky and cigars. Girls, this is the kind of a young man to admire, the kind that will do to tie to. Hurrah for Walter Beazley, and God be with him to help him in his work!

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—John W. Wilkinson and wife are on a trip to Cincinnati.

—Judge Myers thinks he will have to convene a called session of court to make an additional levy on account of exemption of property under the new constitution.

—Henry L. Davenport has returned assessment for Casey county and his work is ready for the board of supervisors, which meets the first Monday in March.

—Wetington, for the cutting of Clemens on Casey's Creek, appeared before Judge Myers, waived an examination and was held to appear at the next circuit court.

—No matter how dull the times are, the youths and maidens of Casey will marry. Since our last report, licenses have been issued to the following couples: John Peyton to Mrs. Mary Coffey; H. B. Minor to Miss Mary B. McAnally; Milford Merritt to Miss Banny Bird; A. C. Carpenter to Miss Cora B. Wilcher.

THE LEGISLATURE.

—It seems impossible for either House to keep a quorum and warrants of arrest have been issued against all the absenteers.

—An amendment to the gambling bill was adopted by the Senate, which prohibits minors from going within 30 feet of any billiard-room with a saloon connected therewith.

—The salary of the secretary of State has been fixed at $3,000, without perquisites. He is empowered to appoint an assistant secretary, who will receive $600 salary and the usual fees.

—The republicans have nominated Judge T. M. Cardwell, of Harrisburg, to make the race against Capt. Taylor, of Frankfort, for the State Senate. The election was fixed for to-day, but owing to a miscount in the number of days it had to be postponed till March 4.

—The House has begun the consideration of the new general bill on prisons. If passed, it will put the penitentiaries under the supervision of a board of managers, where it ought to be, instead of the sinking fund commissioners, as at present.

—Auditor Norman has issued a circular letter to the sheriffs notifying them that an act has passed the General Assembly allowing all delinquents whose property was sold prior to 1893, for State and county taxes, to redeem the same at any time before January 1, 1894, by paying the taxes with cost of sale and 8 per cent. per annum interest on the amount of the taxes and costs until paid.

—The nomination of Judge Howell Jackson to be Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court was confirmed by the Senate without opposition.

NOTES FROM ATLANTA, GA.

—A song which has taken the day here bears the euphonious appellation of the "Buzzard Lope." It is something after the order of Ta-ra-ra-boom-de ay, and about as popular as it was a year or so ago.

Atlanta has a very large number of Jews and many of them are among her most influential citizens. They do not confine themselves to the "sheep eelod" business here, as they do in most places, but a number are selling groceries and many others in various other kinds of business. In several instances here Jews have married Gentiles, which is something rather unusual for them to do.

About the only manufactory that has not flourished here is that of making pianos. A commodious establishment was put up several years ago and some splendid instruments were turned out, but they "came from the South," as many said, and were not salable. It's a pity but there are a great many people who think that nothing can be made without the assistance of the Yankees.

It is surprising and at the same time appalling to know the amount of snuff used in this section. It is confined exclusively to the gentler sex, who, it seems, use about as much tobacco as the men do. The woman who does not "dip" here is the exception rather than the rule. My brother has a big trade in it and sells box after box daily. The ladies generally claim that they are buying it for their sisters, or their cousins or their aunts, while some of them would have you believe that they are purchasing agents for their cooks and nurses. The most popular brand is the Railroad Macaboy, and it sells like hot cakes.

Dame Fashion here has decreed that it is quite correct for the ladies to wear live lizards as ornaments and that little reptile is in great demand. A bust figure in one of the show windows here shows how they should be worn. A tiny chain is fastened around the lizard's neck, which is also fastened to a broach at the lady's neck and the lizard is allowed to run about over the shoulders, or as far as the chain will permit. It seems to me that it is about as filthy a fashion as one could well think of, and the introduction of hoops sinks into obscurity beside it.

I noticed an unusual number of gray horses here and talked with a sale and livery stable man about it. Said he:

"My experience is that they are far more salable than any other color and make a better showing in most every way. I have a number of customers who will drive none other but gray horses."

Hoke Smith's friends here are jubilant over his recognition by Mr. Cleveland, but are loth to give him up as a citizen of Atlanta. He is a lawyer of much prominence and his newspaper career has been a most brilliant and successful one. I have not heard of any Georgian going wild with delight over the grand man's selection of secretary of State, but on the contrary there are many who rather condemn it. To a man up a tree it does look like the democratic party could have furnished a man who would fill the office with as much credit as Judge Gresham and then, too, in the democratic party Mr. Cleveland might have found a man more in sympathy with his views.

I have noticed a great many one-legged and one armed men here—more I believe than I have ever seen in any one city before. I asked a prominent gentleman here why he supposed it was thus and his answer was: "Southern people are very impetuous and hot-blooded and are more disposed to place themselves in danger than are the cooler heads of the North and East. A Northerner will do most anything to get out of resenting an insult, while the Southerner can't resent one too quick."

Since my last the weather has changed greatly for the better and to-day it is bright and cold, with chances in favor of it remaining so.

I have never seen a people so wrapped up in a public official as the citizens of this portion of Georgia are in their governor. Gov. Northen is not considered a man of extraordinary ability, but he is such a good, conscientious man that he won the esteem and admiration of all. A strict member of the church he can be seen in his pew at the First Baptist church whenever the doors are open. The governor is not commanding in appearance, nor does he look like a statesman, but he gets there all the same when it comes to pleasing the masses of the people.

E. C. W.

The Noss Jollities will take Summer Boarders and make a "Quick Match" at Walton's Opera House, Feb. 27th. Engage your seat in advance for their talented company.

—Ford insists that the correct pronunciation of Hawaii is "Haw-waw-wei." Very well; now please tell us how-waw-wei to govern the blamed old place? —Newport Journal.

The tobacco rebranding house of the Finzer Bros., at Louisville, was damaged $35,000 by fire; fully insured.

B. B. KING.

GEORGE B. PREWITT.

KING & PREWITT, MORELAND, KY.,

Take this method of informing the public that they will open in the near future a well selected stock of

GROCERIES AND HARDWARE,

And in the early Spring will add to their stock a line of Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Dry Goods, Millinery, &c. Our terms will be cash or country produce and we will also take in exchange for goods Tan Bark, Whisky Barrel Staves, Hoop Poles and Hickory Spokes. Give us a call and we will save you money.

KING & PREWITT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I am now ready to wait upon my friends in anything in

GROCERIES, HARDWARE,

.....&c. I am also agent for a line of.....

COOK STOVES

Equal to any ever offered here. Call and see them. I represent the famous

Oliver Chilled Plow, Dix Feed Cutter, Studebaker Wagons, &c.

Call and see my line of goods before make any purchases. Very respectfully,

W. H. HIGGINS.

NEW DRUG STORE.

Having lost nearly all my stock by recent fire, I have just re-opened at old stand with

NEW GOODS, FRESH DRUGS,

And Chemicals, Latest Toilet Articles, School Supplies, Stationery and everything to be found in a first-class drug store. I shall be pleased to see all my old customers and as many new ones as will favor me. Assuring them

Prompt Attention and Lowest Prices.

W. B. McROBERTS.

New Block Opposite Court House, Stanford, Ky.

Seasonable Goods

.....We have.....

JUST RECEIVED

</

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., FEBRUARY 21, 1893

W. P. WALTON.

SIX : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

If it be Mr. Cleveland's ambition to surprise the country by discovering new men and exalting them to official position, he is certainly gratifying it. His latest discovery is J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska, whom he has named for the agricultural bureau. As the late Senator Beck enquired when Mr. Buck, one of his constituents, was appointed Minister to Peru during Mr. Cleveland's first administration, "Who the d—l is Mr. Buck?" so is the country now inquiring who the d—l is Morton? The one is about as little known as was the other.

Morton served a term in the State legislature, which fact is not generally considered a recommendation, and is said to be a tariff reformer of the Wattersen school. He doesn't know anything more of agriculture than a hog does of holida, but the agricultural bureau wasn't established to help the farmer. It is simply a sinecure for some political hack who is glad to get anything with a salary attached and be clothed in a little brief authority.

The postmaster general and about 100 other distinguished persons tested the first pneumatic tube for mail transit in America at Philadelphia Saturday. The tube was one-half a mile in length and the first article sent through was a Bible wrapped in the American flag with the message, "First use of the first pneumatic postal tube in the United States is to send through it a copy of the Holy Scriptures, the greatest message ever given to the world. Covering the Bible is the American flag, the emblem of freedom of 65,000,000 happy people." With a pressure of six pounds to the square inch this was forced through the tube in one minute and three seconds. A gold watch and other things were sent thru with safety and the test proved satisfactory in every respect. It is thought that the tubes can be successfully used for the long distance between cities.

No matter who is appointed to the cabinet the Louisville Times elevates itself on its past joint and hurrahs for another victory for Mr. Wattersen. Gresham, Carlisle and Morton are said to be the editor's closest friends and that the appointments fill his heart with joy. It would be the same, though, even if Col. Sears, Mr. Wattersen's ancient and arch enemy, were appointed a member of the president's official family. Mr. Wattersen must be vindicated, even if the blanket has to be stretched to the ripening point, else what's the use of his having two papers, both daily?

The world's supply of hops is estimated to be 3,500,000 pounds short and the World's Fair coming on too. It will be too bad if the visitors to Chicago are forced to drink lake water or the mean whisky of that latitude.

It is said that Col. E. Polk Johnson is an applicant for public printer at Washington, and if the president can find a better man we do not know where he will come from.

NEWSY NOTES.

Two white-cappers were given five years each at Cannelton, Ind.

New York is snowed up as badly almost as during the famous blizzard of 1888.

The steamer Crystal City, valued at $50,000, was cut down by the ice in the river below St. Louis.

All the conductors and collectors on the Louisville Daisy Line were discharged for "knocking down."

The Pension bill, carrying the enormous appropriation of $166,000,000, has been passed by the House.

Lumber dealers around Burkesville, Ky., have been swindled out of some $10,000 by a bogus St. Louis firm.

The Louisville Southern roundhouse at Harrodsburg burned, with two engines. Incendiarism is charged.

Congressmen Turpin and Waugh had a fight in the House over a pension debate. Nobody hurt, however.

Mrs. Robert Downing, of Mason, died from lockjaw, caused from stepping on a rusty nail, which ran into her foot.

A special committee reported that 26 senate bills and 143 house bills were in the hands of house committees unreported.

His Senatorial friends gave Mr. Carlisle a farewell supper the other night, at which much oratory and good feeling abounded.

At Fort Worth, Tex., a boiler of a Texas and Pacific locomotive exploded, killing one man and injuring five others, three of whom will die.

Hon. L. D. Parker, ex-member of the Legislature from Pulaski, is dead. As a Mason, citizen and lawyer he was greatly thought of in his section.

An alphabetical list of all taxpayers who paid on $10,000 or over shows that there are 1,261 people in Louisville who pay on $10,000 or over of property.

James C. Edwards, editor of the Todd County Times, has been selected by Senator Lindsay as his Private Secretary. The salary is $1,200 per annum.

"Doctor" Williams, whose name was connected with the Ross Bohon affair in Louisville, was deprived of his title and $50 in the city court, for unlawfully practicing medicine.

Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Cincinnati, the famous physician and surgeon, who has frequently visited Stanford professionally, died Friday.

John Turner and Floyd Woolly were hung in Marion county, Tenn., for murder. The rain was pouring down during the whole performance.

It is stated upon good authority that Congressman Willis, of Kentucky, has been offered the commissionership of internal revenue by President Cleveland,

There will never be any reform in the thieving pension business until all the cowards are kept out of office. The democratic House killed the amendment to the pension bill revoking payments where the pensioner had an income of $1,000 per annum, and passed the appropriation, which carries with it the enormous sum of $166,000,000. The soldier element is a power in the eyes of the law-makers, who fear its wrath, but the sentiment for a remedy of the abuses of the pension system is gaining ground, and will assert itself in the near future. Till then the camp-followers and coffee-coolers had better make the best of their opportunities.

The Kansas Legislative war between the republicans and populists has ended in the defeat of the latter. The supreme court has issued an injunction restraining the auditor from paying any accounts on order of the populist clerk and the third party members are in a hole. It has been 300 years since Guy Fawkes attempted to blow up the British House of Parliament. The necessity of his act was questionable, but if another Guy Fawkes should succeed in blowing the Kansas Legislature to kingdom come the rest of the people would rise up and call him blessed.

The man who goes another's security to pay a debt, which he has nothing to do with and can derive no benefit from, seems to be what Sut Lovingood would term a natural-born demented fool. At any rate that's the way Gov. McKinley must feel at present when he realizes that his estate has been swept away by endorsing a friend who has gone to the wall for a large amount. It is a bad business, this going security, and the man who cannot say "no" when importuned to do so, will usually live to repent both the loss of a friend and his money.

The Wyoming legislature came to an end by constitutional limit Saturday, without electing a U. S. Senator, after much fruitless balloting. The democrats have by disagreement thus lost a chance, as by fusion with the populists they could have easily won. The governor, who is a republican, will it is said appoint A. L. New to the position.

The world's supply of hops is estimated to be 3,500,000 pounds short and the World's Fair coming on too. It will be too bad if the visitors to Chicago are forced to drink lake water or the mean whisky of that latitude.

Richard Nugent, a young business man at Lexington, was fined $1,000 and sentenced to jail for six months on the charge of aiding and abetting his brother, Thomas Nugent, in shooting W. T. Sistrunk, a commission merchant.

Albert Wing, who murdered his wife in a Louisville bagnio, was given a life sentence, although he asked to be hanged. The father of the murdered woman, Judge Eaves, of Greenville, said that he was too old to be revengeful and asked that the murderer's life be spared.

Gen. George E. Spencer, ex-Senator from Alabama, and S. C. Hastings, ex-Chief Justice of Iowa and of California, died Saturday night, the former in Washington and the latter in San Francisco. Both were born in Jefferson county, N. Y., many years apart, and both became lawyers in Iowa and began public life there.

By the failure at Youngstown, O., of Robert L. Walker, regarded heretofore as a man of great wealth, Gov. McKinley is probably rendered bankrupt. He was on Walker's paper for a large sum, and if Walker's failure is as bad as it appears to be, Gov. McKinley will lose everything he has in the world.

The United States Senate adopted an amendment to the Sundry Civil bill, proposed by Mr. Sherman, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue bonds bearing 3 per cent. interest "to provide for the redemption of notes." The object of the amendment is to meet the exigency now facing the Treasury by providing gold to keep intact the $100,000,000 reserve fund.

The president transmitted to the Senate a message recommending the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. He puts the case very plainly. "Only two courses are now open," he says: "one the establishment of a protectorate by the United States and the other annexation full and complete." The latter course is favored. In all probability the treaty will be sanctioned by the Senate, and the islands come into the possession of the United States. It provides that $20,000 a year shall be paid the deposed Queen and the lump sum of $150,000 to the Princess who is heir apparent. Chinese are prohibited coming from the islands to the States, and the sugar bounty under the McKinley bill is not to be paid on Spreckles' sugar.

At Fort Worth, Tex., a boiler of a Texas and Pacific locomotive exploded, killing one man and injuring five others, three of whom will die.

Two special committees reported that 26 senate bills and 143 house bills were in the hands of house committees unreported.

His Senatorial friends gave Mr. Carlisle a farewell supper the other night, at which much oratory and good feeling abounded.

At Fort Worth, Tex., a boiler of a Texas and Pacific locomotive exploded, killing one man and injuring five others, three of whom will die.

Hon. L. D. Parker, ex-member of the Legislature from Pulaski, is dead. As a Mason, citizen and lawyer he was greatly thought of in his section.

An alphabetical list of all taxpayers who paid on $10,000 or over shows that there are 1,261 people in Louisville who pay on $10,000 or over of property.

James C. Edwards, editor of the Todd County Times, has been selected by Senator Lindsay as his Private Secretary. The salary is $1,200 per annum.

"Doctor" Williams, whose name was connected with the Ross Bohon affair in Louisville, was deprived of his title and $50 in the city court, for unlawfully practicing medicine.

Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Cincinnati, the famous physician and surgeon, who has frequently visited Stanford professionally, died Friday.

John Turner and Floyd Woolly were hung in Marion county, Tenn., for murder. The rain was pouring down during the whole performance.

It is stated upon good authority that Congressman Willis, of Kentucky, has been offered the commissionership of internal revenue by President Cleveland,

P. G. Coker, wholesale milliner, Louisville, has failed for $60,000.

It snowed all day in Buffalo, N. Y., Sunday, and at 9 o'clock that night the "beautiful" had reached a depth of three feet.

The river at Cincinnati is over 57 feet, long past the danger line. Two steamboats are said to have blown into a corn field above the city.

A society girl at the Harrodsburg theater created a sensation by appearing at the play without a hat. The Sayings pays her a very high compliment for her consideration.

An immense flow of water from an artesian well sunk near Portland, Tex., gives other ranchmen hopes that the effects of the drought may be hereafter avoided by drilling wells.

Congressman Al Berry, of Newport, has been indicted by the grand jury for misfeasance in the office of mayor, for offering bribes to councilmen and for renting houses to prostitutes.

The First National Bank has withdrawn from the Lexington Clearing Association because the manager fined its runner $1 for not observing a rule and refused to remit it when asked to do so.

The flour mills of Comer & Wilker-son, at Birmingham, Ala., were burned Sunday, the loss being estimated at $100,000, and no insurance. J. A. Lewis, who was sleeping in the building was burned to a crisp.

At Noblesville, Ind., the jury in the Senator McDonald will contest virtually pronounced the document offered for probate a forgery, and awarded the contestants real estate in Indianapolis valued at $40,000.

A huge rock-slide weighing ten tons came down the mountain near Nuttallburg, W. Va. on the C. and O., and crushed a hut in which ten colored men were living. Four of them were killed and the other six badly injured.

Richard Nugent, a young business man at Lexington, was fined $1,000 and sentenced to jail for six months on the charge of aiding and abetting his brother, Thomas Nugent, in shooting W. T. Sistruck, a commission merchant.

Albert Wing, who murdered his wife in a Louisville bagnio, was given a life sentence, although he asked to be hanged. The father of the murdered woman, Judge Eaves, of Greenville, said that he was too old to be revengeful and asked that the murderer's life be spared.

The Gibson Farm, consisting of 245 acres, lying adjacent to the Lexington Water-works reservoir, was purchased by the company for $30,500. The reservoir will be enlarged and made to hold 205,000,000 gallons. This will insure a continuous water supply to the city.

The Board of Appeal for the Pacific district of the National Trotting Association has decided that Stambouli's record of 2:07 1/2 is genuine. One man implicated in the attempt to prove that the record was a "fake" has been expelled from the association, and two others suspended.

Prewitt & Wood bought 320 corn-fed ewes from J. E. Lynn—260 for immediate delivery at 4½c, and the balance for delivery March 1 at 4c and 99 from Wm. Moreland for March delivery at 4½c. They sold 4 feeders, 1,170 pounds, to Jake Robinson, at 4½c. W. W. McElroy sold to S. A. Chambers of Lebanon, Tenn., his fine young 2-year-old jake, Big Ben, for $1,000; also to Mr. Van Cleve, of Missouri, another young jake for $600.—Danville Advocate.

The Rev. Mr. Stivers, of St. Johns, N. B., is a daisy. This is the way he wrote to the wife of a parishioner: "You radiant-browed, unique-faced, musical-voiced, kissable, delectable, thrilling armful of contradictions, yet queen of my loving heart. * * * My heart was never touched and stirred until I saw you. I know perfectly well that I have no moral right to tell you this, because you belong to another. You are my queen, my mate, my affinity, my love." The woman's husband got onto the racket and instead of using a shotgun on the man of many sweet adjectives, he has left it to a jury to say how much the reverend cuss owes her for alienating his wife's affections.

The wheat crop of this county has weathered the winter well and is said to be looking finely.

There never was a horse so high in breeding or so low in speed that it did not pay to advertise him.

Wool—I want to buy 100,000 lbs. or more of wool. Will pay highest market price. A. T. Nunnelley.

A car load of hogs shipped from Illinois to Chicago last week averaged 419 lbs, and brought $8.40, or an average of $35.24 per head.

There are 325 nominations in the Great American Derby, to be run at Washington Park, Chicago, June 24, and $50,000 is guaranteed to the winner, $7,000 to the second and $3,000 to the third horse.

F. W. Spreen, who owns 18,000 peach trees in Trimble county, stated Saturday that not a bud upon his trees is injured. The prospect for a large peach crop is most flattering in Kentucky and Southern Indiana.

BIG Bargain : Sale !

The Louisville Store THIS WEEK.

Bleached Lonsdale Cotton 8 1-3c;

Bleached Fruit of the Loom 8 1-3c.

Yard-wide Brown Cotton 4 1-2c.

Look at our

Cheap Table.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE,

A. HAYS, Manager.

WE

WANT : 400 : LADIES

And Gentlemen to call and see what the attractions are at

STEPHENS & KNOX'

Large Store in Rowland, Ky. We never robbed Peter to pay Paul, but sell to one and all at the same per cent, and that is why we are getting rid of so many of our nice Spring Goods early in the season.

Dress Goods—Macgregor Cheviots, Surges, Henriettes, Black Lawns, White Lawns, Satin Glorias, French Ginghams, Creylocks, Dahlia Cloth, Zephyrettes, Chameleons, Nasted, Woollens, &c., Silk Nouveautie and Passemeinter, Francaise Trimmings, Linen Torches, Automatic Embroidery, Valencein Laces, &c., Hosiery, Ladies' Vests, Belts, &c. Largest line of Ladies', Children's and Men's Ties in the country. Our stock of Buell & Son's, W. L. Douglass, McIntosh, Selz, Schwab & Co.'s SHOES are all on the road to our Emporium in Rowland, Ky. These goods are direct from the largest factories in the East. HATS of all sizes and styles in abundance.

Below : Competition.

The most elegant line of Gents' CLOTHING in this section will soon be opened in our house. We can knock out the jobbers in the line of GROCERIES. We bought largely in this line of goods early in the season. We thank our friends for their past patronage and hope by fair dealing and polite treatment to have a continuance of their valued patronage.

STEPHENS & KNOX.

M'KINNEY BRO'S

Have just received a new barrel each of Open Kettle, N. O. Molasses, Sorghum and Caramel Syrup; also pure Maple Syrup, Buckwheat and Graham Flour in bulk, self rising Buckwheat Flour, Hams, Shoulders, Side Meat, Breakfast Bacon, Broiling Beef, Canned Roast, Corn and Chipped Beef, Mackerel and Pigs' Feet in barrel, Hyman's mix ed and Cucumber Pickles in barrel, Queen Gage Plums, Red Cherries, Blackberries, Sweet Potatoes, French Peas, Van Houten's Cocoa.

WE KEEP THE BEST BRANDS

Of Teas and Coffees. We will have a full stock of Seed Potatoes and Garden Seeds, the best varieties. Have already bought and will be able to give you some low prices.

McKINNEY BROS.

A. R. PENNY, DRUGGIST AND JEWELER And BOOK-SELLER.

The Largest Stock to select from. Prices always the lowest. Mr. Thos. Dalton has charge of Jewelry Department. Watches, Clocks and Jewelry Repaired and Warranted.

Engraving Beautifully and Artistically Done.

Old Gold and Silver taken in exchange for goods.

Thanking my friends and the

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., FEBRUARY 21, 1893

E.C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. J. W. ALORN is quite ill.

Mrs. W. C. HUTCHINGS has been visiting in Lancaster.

W. S. KNOX, of Rowland, went to Boyle yesterday to visit relatives.

Miss MARY KAY has returned from a visit to her brother in Louisiana.

Mrs. LAURA FAULKNER, of Corbin, is on a visit to her son, Squire A. G. Faulkner.

MISSSES JENNIE AND MARIE WARREN are visiting Miss Marie Warren, in Danville.

MR. RIENZA SIZEMORE, of Clinton, Tenn., is visiting his brother, Rev. Amicus Vespuccius Sizemore.

Mrs. N. J. TYRE has returned from a three-months' visit to her children in Russellville, Bowling Green and Glasgow.

Mr. SAM C. LACKEY, of Atlanta, is on a visit to his father, Hon. G. A. Lackey, and is looking first rate.

Miss FANNIE DAVIDSON, of McKinney, returned with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Julian yesterday and is now their guest.

Capt. W. J. WASH, road master of the K. C., met the pay train here Saturday and escorted it over his division.

Mr. E. P. Woods, who has been down with the rheumatism for a week or two, was able to drive with his wife to town Friday.

DR. AND MRS. W. B. O'BANNON, who have been visiting at Brodhead, passed through yesterday en route to their home at Kingsville.

A PICTURE of Stanfords handsome mayor, D. W. Vandever, appears in yesterday's Courier-Journal, and will appear in this paper Friday.

Miss MAY ADAMS, who has been on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Lincoln, in Louisville, returned to Gray's yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Lincoln.

Mr. WILL J. YAGER, an excellent young gentleman of Louisville, is up again on important business, in which a very lovely young lady figures.

John Pope was thrown from a buggy by his horse running away, Friday night, and was seriously cut on the head, besides having his collar bone broken.

Miss LILLIAN TANNER will give a Marchioness party at her home at the McKinney-morrow night, and has invited a number of her Stanford friends.

JUDGE SAUFLEY spent Sunday at home and returned to Harrodsburg on the early train yesterday. He is much pleased with Mercer, both as to her bar and people.

Geo. H. Abbott, representing the Noss Jollity Co., was here Saturday and left the town "billed like a circus." His stand paper is unusually costly and attractive.

E. H. JONES is commencing business right at Pineview. He has a column and a half advertisement in the Messenger, telling the people where he is and how cheap he will sell goods.

MESSRS. JAS. F. WALLEN AND SON, W. D., of the East End, are here on business. It is the first time that Mr. W. D. Wallen has been this far from home since he broke his leg in three places 16 months ago.

Mr. J. S. BLEDSOE went to Fayette yesterday to see his sister, Mrs. Robert Ryndom, who has just lost her husband. Mr. Ryndom was a noted miller of that county and lived his 93 years in his little mill, which had more reputation than many of greater capacity. The World's Fair commissioners wanted to move the mill intact to the Chicago exposition and return it in good shape, but Mr. Ryndom refused, as he did not wish to part with his life-long companion, even for a day.

CITY AND VICINITY.

If you want to see a first-class olio be sure to see the Noss Jollities in a "Quick Match."

CREEKMORE is the name of a postoffice just established in Whitley, with E. K. Creekmore postmaster.

WANTED.—A good white girl at once. Good home in small family. Address Box 135, Stanford.

BOB HANSFORD, accused of robbing a meat house, is again breathing the air of freedom. Hon. W. H. Miller, Brent Hays and Anderson Carr went his bail.

A. C. ALVORSON, formerly of Hustonville and Danville, caught robbing the contribution box of the Louisville Broadway Methodist church, was held in $500 bond to the circuit court.

NOTICE.—Wanted, four respectable white women, to go to Philadelphia and be nurses in a private hospital. Must have common school education. Address P. O. Box 161, Stanford, Ky.

I. O. O. F.—A full attendance of the members of Stanford Lodge No. 156 is requested at the meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, to vote on a change in by-laws and other important business. A. C. Sine, Sec'y.

After turning into a snow and sleet Friday night, the falling weather ceased and since then it has been clear and cold, the mercury yesterday morning registering 17°. A further cold wave was predicted for last night.

TIMOTHY seed, red top seed, oats and millet at W. H. Wearen & Co.'s.

YOUR account is ready. Call and settle. I mean you. A. R. Penny.

BOB WHITLEY spent Sunday in the calaboose for being drunk and disorderly.

GEORGE PORTMAN, a well known colored man, died Saturday of consumption.

REMEMBER M. F. Elkin pays the highest market price for furs, beef hides, &c., in cash.

THE floods put Middlesboro under water, but she has arisen and is ready to come again.

THE engineers have not struck yet and matters seem to be in statu quo, though it is said that they will come to a head to-day.

THREE more answers to the missing word problem came in—Mrs. J. R. Mount, LaGrange, R. M. Hunt, Roundland, and Miss Bessie Bishop, McKinney, running the total number of answers received to 403.

BRO. ELLIS scored it to his congregation Sunday for not putting a decent fence around the church and laying additional pavements. He said the present condition was a disgrace, and he didn't put it too strongly.

AN irate husband ran a Danville dude out of town the other night and didn't use a shot gun as an accelerator either. He simply secured a common everyday stick and the fellow took to his heels with lightning rapidity, not even looking back till he reached the toll gate.

J. P. BURR has found his mare, stolen from him some time ago. Dot Lee, o' Garrard, had her and says he gave Bill Johnson $35 for her. Johnson claims to have gotten her from a man named Ballenger, Ballenger says he got her from Ballard, and so on, almost ad infinitum.

THERE has not been nor will there be a full moon in this month, a situation which can come but once in 20 years.

The next time Old Luna gets on a full it will be about the time Cleveland is inaugured.

It is to be hoped, however, that her democratic friends will not follow suit.

THE second lecture of the course will be given at Walton's Opera House, to-night, 21st, when Prof. John DeWitt Miller will expatiate on the Uses of Ugliness. It is rather a singular subject, but the professor is said to be able to get a great deal of fun and much wisdom out of it. It will pay you to attend.

ROBBED.—Thomas Adkins, who claims to be clerk of the Whitley county circuit court, complained to the Louisville police that he had been robbed of $700 in money and a lot of valuable papers. Adkins went to the city, then to a disreputable house, where he got drunk. When he woke up in jail he was minus the money and with not enough recollection of his escapade to saddle the theft on any party with certainty.

THE Noss Jollity Co. will appear at Walton's Opera House on the 27th, in their laughable musical comedy, "A Quick Match." The Morris, Ill., Daily News says of the company: Talk about a big house and a good performance! The second appearance of the Noss Jollities here attracted one of the finest and largest audiences that ever saw the curtain rise in Morris. The musical comedy, "A Quick Match," contained plenty of fun. It is not a company with one star and a lot of wooden men and women for support, but every member is an artist.

PROMOTIONS.—Chief Train Dispatcher W. F. Sheridan has been promoted to the First Division, with headquarters at Louisville, and Mr. J. A. Mudd to the office of chief of this division. Both promotions are eminently deserved. Mr. Sheridan has done splendid work since he came here 16 months ago and by his gentlemanly demeanor has made many friends, who are sorry that his advancement means separation from them. Mr. Mudd has been a dispatcher for 10 years and is one of the most painstaking on the road. These changes advance Mr. T. A. Rice to the "first or day trick," Mr. E. F. North to that from 4 to 12, midnight, and Mr. L. M. Westerfield to the 34 trick, as soon as he gets well of the mumps.

FRIED FROM THE CHURCH.—Several weeks ago, at a communion service at the Baptist church, Deacon L. N. Cone passed the emblems to Mr. J. B. Green, an elder in the Presbyterian church, who was present. It seems that "close communion" is one of the tenets of the church here, but it has not been strictly adhered to in the past. Rev. John Rife, the pastor, had charges preferred against Mr. Cone for violating the rules of the church and he was cited to appear for trial. On one or two occasions the matter was up before the church, but no final action was taken until Saturday afternoon last, at which time he was formally excluded from the church, ten voting to sustain the charge and five against the exclusion. The situation is very unfortunate, as the church is weak in numbers and not able to employ a minister for more than half the time. Mr. Cone is one of our best citizens, was a very active, zealous member of the church and one of the best informed officers connected with it.—Hustonville Cor. Danville Advocate.

I. O. O. F.—A full attendance of the members of Stanford Lodge No. 156 is requested at the meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, to vote on a change in by-laws and other important business. A. C. Sine, Sec'y.

After turning into a snow and sleet Friday night, the falling weather ceased and since then it has been clear and cold, the mercury yesterday morning registering 17°. A further cold wave was predicted for last night.

FOR RENT.—The Capt. Gaines Craig house and lot on Upper Main street. P. M. McRoberts.

We invite all who are looking for men's, youths' and boys' clothing or shoes to come and see us this week. We have something especial to say to you and to show you. Hughes & Tate.

DISPATCH from Sherman, Texas, says that a man answering to the description of J. C. Anderson, the assassin of Editor Rucker, of Somerset, Ky., has been arrested there. A Somerset officer was sent at once to Sherman to identify the suspect.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Clerk James P. Bailey informs us that the docket for the circuit court, which will convene next Monday, has 94 Commonwealth, 133 old equity, 29 ordinary, 20 equity appearances and 21 ordinary appearances. The Commonwealth docket will not be called till the second day.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY was here Sunday en route to the Mt. Vernon court, feeling quite happy over the result of a suit before the court of appeals, the decision in his favor meaning a $4,000 fee for him. It was the case Barker and others, of South Somerset, who sued the Cincinnati Southern for fire losses, alleged to have been caused by sparks from the defendant's engines. The amount involved is $16,000. Asked as to his prospects for being appointed to the U. S. circuit court bench, he said he had made no application, but if he had made no application he would not do so. His friends of both parties were urging the president to appoint him, which he regarded as a compliment almost as high as the appointment itself. While the pay of the office is much less than he earns as a lawyer, yet he would consider the appointment an honor and accept it if tendered to him without a struggle on his part. If Mr. Harrison intends to appoint he could not find a better man nor one whose advancement would gratify so great a number of people, regardless of politics or "previous condition."

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

A Graves county youth on being jilted by the daughter proposed to the mother and was accepted. She is 45, he 17.

A. H. Petrey, a widower of 37, and Miss Mary Alice Griffin, sweet sixteen, were married at Bob Frazier's on the 18th.

Reuben Hogue, who has seen 38 winters and been married before, led Miss Martha Jane Alford, a blushing maiden of 35, to the altar Saturday last at Mr. W. M. Hogue's.

Mrs. Lillian Bonduart Henry, mention of whose suit for divorce was recently made in this paper, was refused a divorce by the Cincinnati court, because her testimony, contradicted by her husband, was not corroborated. She was, however, granted $1,000 a year alimony.

The engagement is announced in Paris of Miss May McClellan, daughter of the late Gen. George B. McClellan, to Paul Desbrez, of the French Legation at Washington. The marriage will take place in Paris early in March. Nellie Grant's experience again goes for naught.

A discarded lover at Baltimore is suing the woman who played him false for the love letters he wrote her during his blissful dream. She is about to marry another fellow and very naturally he doesn't want his productions to pass under his perusal. Love letters are usually very silly, to a third party at least, and the Baltimore man seems to be aware of it.

Wm. Robinson, the father of 11 children, five of whom are married, was married in Mercer Friday to Miss Mollie Burnett, a damsel 35 years his junior. There was great objection to the match by the children and when the couple eloped they pursued them, but the old man was wily and having secured the license, he arranged to have a preacher to meet him and the marriage took place in the woods.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly call on or keep company with such female upon such false pretense that he is unmarried, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, or imprisoned in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to punish married maschers. It provides that any married man who shall fraudulently represent himself to be unmarried and make proposals of marriage to any unmarried female of good character, or repeatedly

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Every Tuesday and Friday
$2 per Year in Advance
When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

K. G. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning 5:20 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train going North..... 7:37 pm
" " South..... 12:15 pm
Express train " South..... 11:51 pm
" " North..... 12:23 am
Local Freight North..... 7:10 am
" " South..... 5:30 pm

The latter trains also carry passengers.
The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 20 minutes faster.

QUEEN CRESCENT ROUTE.

Trains pass Junction City as follows:
South-bound—No. 1, Limited, 12:25 p. m.; No. 2, Blue Grass Special, arrives 8:40 p. m., No. 5, Q. & C. Special, 12:27 a. m.; No. 7, Fast Mail, arrives 12:40 p. m., leaves 2:05 p. m.
North-bound—No. 2, Q. & C. Special, 2:00 p. m., No. 4 leaves at 6 a. m.; No. 6, Limited, 3:15 a. m.; No. 8, Express, arrives 4:00 p. m., leaves 4:15 p. m.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—[Latest United States Government Food Report.]

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.,
106 Wall St., New York.

New Crusher and Bolting Cloth.

Having added to my Mill a Corn Crusher, one that will grind cob and all, and at the same time grind any other kind of grain and mix it to suit any one, and also put in a new Flour Bolting Cloth, I am prepared to make you some good old fashion Burr Flour; and am putting in a Meal Mill, will have it ready in a week or so.
J. H. BRIGHT.

DAIRY.

I will open on January sixth, 1851, a First-Class Dairy, from which I can supply any quantity of Jersey milk to the people of Stanford and Rowland at the following prices, delivered:

Fresh Milk, per gallon..... 20 cents
Skinned Milk, per gallon..... 15 cents
Butter Mills, per gallon..... 8 cents

I will make two trips daily. The patronage of the public is solicited.
G. A. PEYTON,
Stanford, Ky.

Notice to the Traveling Public.

....I have had....

THE SHELTON HOUSE

At Rowland repainted and nicely furnished and have in connection with Hotel one of the best saloons in the country, open day and night; highest class and all trains. In the afternoon Hotel has also one of the best Mineral wells in the State and for reference to water, call on Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patrick, Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ingram, Erin, Tenn., A. W. Warren, Stanford, D. C. Proctor, C. H. Brown, Frankfort, T. W. Hamilton, Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Johnson, New Haven, Jim Cox, Greensburg. Rates $2 per day. J. M. Petrey, clerk. Give me a call.
J. W. CARRIER, Prop.

DR. W. B. PENNY
Dentist.

Office South side Main street, in office recently vacated by Dr. L. F. Huffman, Stanford, Ky.

DENTO."

For the painless extraction of teeth and other minor surgery. I have tested its virtue sufficiently to know.

R. C. MORGAN, D. D. S.

FOR SALE.

Nineteen good Ewes and also one thoroughbred southdown Buck; one 1,000 pound corn-fed, fat 4-year old Steer; 7 yearling Mare Mules, good colts and good Mules.

D. M. CREIGHTON,
Kingville, Lincoln county, Ky.

FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell privately my Farm of 50 Acres on the Danville & Stanford pike, three miles from Stanford. It is well improved, with dwelling of five rooms, new barn and all necessary outbuildings; also has fine spring. Call on me on the premises or address me at Stanford, Ky.

EUGENE KELLEY.

LUMBER. I will start up next week a SAW MILL on the Somerset pike, eight miles from Stanford, and will have 70,000 feet of good lumber for sale. I will sell at the most reasonable rates and invite all who want Lumber to give me a call.
82-1m JACOB HAEFLIGER, Orlensheim.

Falls Branch Jellico Coal Co.,
Miners and shippers of the GENUINE
Original Jellico Coal.

Try it. We are the sole agents for Stanford and Rowland. Office corner of Depot street and railroad crossing.

6 HIGGINS & WATTS.

THE COFFEY HOUSE

STANFORD, KY.

JOSEPH COFFEY, Prop.

This Hotel, renovated and refurnished, is now to no charge and I intend to conduct it so as to do its long list of friends. Special accommodations for commercial travel and fine rooms for the display of samples.

As First-Class Saloon!
And BILLIARD and POOL ROOMS attached
JOSEPH COFFEY.

SONG OF THE MYSTIC.

I walked down the valley of Silence,
Down the dim, voiceless valley alone,
And heard not the fall of the footsteps
Around me, save God's and my own,
And the hush of my heart is as holy
As hovers where angels have flown.

Long ago I was weary of voices
Whose music my heart could not win;
Long ago I was weary of noises
That fretted my soul with their din;
Long ago I was weary of places
Where I met but the human and sin.

I walked through the world with the worldly,
I craved what the world never gave—
And I said.—In the world each ideal
That shines like a star on life's wave
Is tame on the shore of the real,
And sleeps like a dream in a grave.

And still I pined for the perfect,
And still found the false with the true,
I sought 'mid the human for Heaven,
But caught a mere glimpse of its bale;
And I wept when the clouds of the mortal
Veiled even that glimpse from my view.

And I toiled on, heart-tired of the human,
And moaned 'mid the masses of men,
Till I knelt long ago at an altar
And heard a voice call me—since then
I walked down the valley of Silence
That lies far beyond human ken.

Did you ask what I found in the valley?
'Tis my resting place with the Divine;
And I tell at the feet of the Holy,
And about me a voice said, "Be mine!"
And there rose from the depth of my spirit
An echo, "My heart shall be thine."

Do you ask how I live in the valley?
I weep and I dream and I pray;
But my tears are as sweet as the rain-drops
That fall on the roses in May;
And my prayer, like perfume from censor
Ascends to God night and day.

In the hush of the valley of Silence
I dream all the songs that I sing
And the music floats down the dim valley
Till each finds a word for a wing
That to men, like the doves of the deluge
The message of peace they may bring.

But far on the top there are billows
That never shall break on the beach,
And never heard sounds in the silence
That ever shall float into speech,
And I have heard dreams in the valley
Too lofty for language to reach.

And I have seen thoughts in the valley—
Ah, me! how my spirit was stirred;
And they had holy veins on their faces—
Their footsteps can scarcely be heard;
They pass through the valley like virgins,
Too pure for the touch of the world.

Do you ask me the place of the valley?
Ye hearts that are narrowed by care—
It lies afar, between mountains,
God and His angels are there;
And one is the dark mount of sorrow,
And one the bright mountain of prayer.

—By Father Ryan the Poet Priest.

(Printed in loving memory of a devoted and true wife, from her own selections.)

PENSION FRAUDS.—It is a gross outrage that men who fought hard in the soldier's tent and bled—bullocks—in the army train should be placed on the pension list because of a suddenly discovered stiffness in their joints or a constitutional weakness due to years of indulgence in fiery and impure whisky. Worst of all is the "cumulative" disability, made up of suffering from corns, chilblains, cosiness, weak stomach, bad throat, toothache, rash of blood to the head, or anything else that may procure a pension for a life-long voter of the right denomination. It is as great an outrage to place the names of these fraudulent and rascally pensioners on the same list with those who fought and bled in the late war and can show an honorable scar for every dollar they draw from the Federal Treasury. It is a worse outrage that some of these pensioners, to call them by their best title, draw bigger pensions than some honorable soldiers who were shot in the most ghastly manner and suffered from their wounds until they died, some of them twenty or twenty-five years after the close of the war.—Harrisburg Patriot.

"Thank you!" said the old gentleman, and seizing the basket he entered a first class smoking carriage.

"What do you mean, sir?" roared the exasperated inspector. "You said—" "I said a man's leg was under the wheel, and so it was," interrupted the old gentleman. "I bought this leg and paid for it, and if it isn't mine I should like to know who it belongs to, that's all." Then the train moved on.—Figaro.

"I perceive"—

There was a tinge of pity in her voice.—"that the unexpected exigencies of the occasion have robbed you of your usual facility"—

Her manner had an unmistakable kindness about it.

"In articulation. I therefore excuse you from saying, as is usual on such occasions, that your heart!"

She looked very sweet in her yellow silk waist and black skirt.

"is dead and cold. That you can never love again; that you have met and lost your only ideal; that death were thrice welcome. We"—

She beamed graciously.

"will consider it understood. You left your hat in the hall. No, this is the street door. Goodby."

It was the end. A very dazed man stood on the sidewalk. Far away a dog barked at the moon and a tramp nestled closer to a haystack, but otherwise the world was silent.—Detroit Tribune.

"They are going to be married? Why?"

"Did I know they were engaged?"

"Well, you see there are so many engagements broken nowadays that they thought they wouldn't get engaged, just simply married."

"Greene Bayes has failed abominably in the law. Wonder what he'll do now?"

"Oh, he's all right! He has influence enough to get on the bench.—Puck."

Husband—After today I'm going to try a new plan with you. Every time you get a new dress it must be understood that I can invite my friends here to a little poker party and a merry time generally.

Wife (sweetly)—You can have them every night, dear, if you want to.—Truth.

Just His Luck.

"I hear Simpson had a streak of bad luck and has been losing money."

"Did he lose much?"

"About $10,000."

"How did it happen?"

"He fell down a coal hole that was left uncovered and wasn't hurt."—Detroit Free Press.

Accommodating.

Husband—After today I'm going to try a new plan with you. Every time you get a new dress it must be understood that I can invite my friends here to a little poker party and a merry time generally.

Wife (sweetly)—You can have them every night, dear, if you want to.—Truth.

Obedient.

Clerk—He told me to go to the devil.

Boss—And what did you do?

Clerk—I came right back to you, sir.

—Truth.

What a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you who published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying laces and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

A Local Application.

What a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you who published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying laces and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

What a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you who published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying laces and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

What a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you who published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying laces and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

What a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you who published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying laces and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

What a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you who published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying laces and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

What a Mistake May Do.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you who published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying laces and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Every Tuesday and Friday
$2 per Year in Advance
When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

K. G. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning
5:20 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train going North..... 12:37 p. m.
" South..... 12:12 p. m.
Express train " North..... 12:30 p. m.
Local Freight North..... 12:34 a. m.
South..... 12:40 p. m.
The latter trains also carry passengers.
The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 20 minutes faster.

QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE.

Trains pass Junction City as follows:
South-bound—No. 1, Limited, 12:25 p. m.; No. 5, Blue-Grass Special, arrives 8:40 p. m.; No. 5, Q. & C. Special, 12:27 a. m.; No. 7, Fast Mail, arrives 12:40 p. m., leaves 2:05 p. m.

North-bound—No. 3, Q. & C. Special, 3:20 p. m.; No. 4 leaves at 6 a. m.; No. 6, Limited, 3:25 a. m.; No. 8, Express, arrives 12:01 p. m., leaves 1:15 p. m.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—[Latest United States Government Food Report.]

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.,
106 Wall St., New York.

New Crusher and Bolting Cloth.

Having added to my Mill a Corn Crusher, one that will grind cob and all and at the same time grind any other kind of grain and mix it to suit any one and also put in new Bolting Cloth. I am prepared to make you some good old Fashion Butter Flax; and am putting in a Meal Bol., will have it ready in a week or so.

96 fm J. H. BRIGHT.

DAIRY.

I will open on January 16th, 1893, a First-Class Dairy from which I can supply any quantity of Jersey milk to the people of Stanford and Rowland at the following prices, delivered:

Fresh Milk, per gallon..... 20 cents
Skinned Milk, per gallon..... 10 cents
Butter Mills, per gallon..... 8 cents

I will make two trips daily. The patronage of the public is solicited. G. A. PEYTON,
Stanford, Ky.

Notice to the Traveling Public.

I have had....

THE SHELTON HOUSE

At Rowland repainted and nicely furnished and have in connection with Hotel one of the best saloons in the State, open day and night; a night menu meets all trains. In connection with House have also one of the best Mineral wells in the State for reference to water, call on Mr. Mrs. G. W. Proctor, Louisville, Ky., Mr. Mrs. Floydogram, Erin, Tenn., A. Warren, Stanford, Dr. D. E. Proctor, C. H. Braun, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hamilton, Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Johnson, New Haven, Jim Cox, Greensburg. Rates $2 per day. J. M. Petrey, clerk. Give me a story. J. W. CARRIER, Prop.

DR. W. B. PENNY
Dentist.
Office South side Main Street, in office recently vacated by Dr. L. F. Huffman, Stanford, Ky.

"DENTO."

For the painless extraction of teeth and other minor surgery, I have tested its virtue sufficiently to know R. C. MORGAN, D. D. S.

FOR SALE.

Nineteen good Ewes and also one thoroughbred southdown Buck; one 1,100 pound corn-fed, four-year-old Steer; 7 yearling Mare Mules, good colts and good Mules.

D. M. CREIGHTON,
Kingsville, Lincoln county, Ky.

FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell privately my Farm of 50 Acres on the D. & R. R. between Stanford and Rowland, It is well improved, with dwelling of five rooms, new barn and all necessary outbuildings; also has fine spring. Call on me on the premises or address me at Stanford, Ky.

62 EUGENE KELLEY.

LUMBER. I will start up next week a SAW MILL on the Somerset Pike, eight miles from Stanford, and will have 70,000 feet of good Oak and Poplar Lumber for sale. I will sell at the most reasonable rates and invite all who want lumber to give me a call.

82-1m JACOB HAEFLIGER, Othenheim.

Falls Branch Jellico Coal Co.

Miners and shippers of the GENUINE
Original Jellico Coal.

Try it. We are the sole agents for Stanford and Rowland. Corner of Depot street and railroad crossing.

6 HIGGINS & WATTS.

THE COFFEY HOUSE

STANFORD, KY.

JOSEPH COFFEY, Prop.

This Hotel, renovated and refurbished, is now in my charge and I intend to conduct it so as to not only maintain its high reputation, but to add to its long list of friends. Special accommodations for commercial travelers and fine rooms for the display of samples.

First-Class Saloon!
And BILLIARD and POOL ROOMS attached
37-11 JOSEPH COFFEY.

SONG OF THE MYSTIC.

I walked down the valley of Silence,
Down the dim, voiceless valley alone.
And heard not the fall of the footsteps
Around me, save God's and my own,
And the hush of my heart is as holy
As hovers where angels have flown.

Long ago I was weary of voices
Whose music my heart could not win;
Long ago I was weary of noises
That fretted my soul with their din;
Long ago I was weary of places
Where I met but the human and sin.

I walked through the world with the worldly,
I craved what the world never gave—

And I said:—In the world each ideal
That shines like a star on life's way
Is set on the shore of the real,
And sleeps like a dream in a grave.

And still I pined for the perfect,
And still found the false with the true,
I sought 'mid the human for Heaven,
But caught a mere glimpse of its blue;
And I wpt when the clouds of its gloom
Veiled even that glimpse from my view.

And I told on, heart-tired of the human,
And mused 'mid the masses of men,
Till I knelt long ago at an altar
And heard a voice call me—since then

I walked down the valley of Silence
That lies far beyond human ken.

Did you ask what I found in the valley?
'Tis my resting place with the Divine;
And I tell at the feet of the Holy,
And about me a voice said, "Be mine!"
And there rose from the depth of my spirit
An echo, "My heart shall be thine."

Do you ask how I live in the valley?
I weep and I dream and I pray;

But my tears are as sweet as the rain-drops
That fall on the roses in May;

And my prayer, like perfume from censor
Ascends to God night and day.

In the hush of the valley of Silence
I dream all the songs that I sing
And the music floats down the dismal valley
Till each finds a word for a wing
That to man, like the doves of the deluge
The message of peace they may bring.

But far on the top there are billows
That never shall break on the beach,
And never heard sounds in the silence
That ever shall float into speech,
And I have had dreams in the valley
Too lofty for language to reach.

And I have seen thoughts in the valley—
Ah, me! how my spirit was stirred;

And they had holy veins on their faces—
Their footsteps can scarcely be heard;

They pass through the valley like virgins,
For pure is the touch of the world.

Do you ask me the place of the valley?

Ye hearts that are tormented by care—

It lies afar, between mountains,

And God and His angels are there;

And one is the dark mount of sorrow,

And one the bright mountain of prayer

By Father Ryan, the Poet Priest.

[Printed in loving memory of a devoted and true wife, from her own selections.]

PENSION FRAUDS.—It is a gross outrage that men who fought hard in the soldier's tent and bled—bullocks—in the army train should be placed on the pension list because of a suddenly discovered stiffness in their joints or a constitutional weakness due to years of indulgence in fiery and impure whisky. Worst of all is the "cumulative" disability, made up of suffering from corns, chilblains, costiveness, weak stomach, bad throat, toothache, rush of blood to the head, or anything else that may procure a pension for a life-long voter of the right denomination. It is as great an outrage to place the names of these fraudulent and rascally pensioners on the same list with those who fought and bled in the late war and can show an honorable scar for ever dollar they draw from the Federal Treasury. It is a worse outrage that some of these pensioners, to call them by their best title, draw bigger pensions than some honorable soldiers who were shot in the most ghastly manner and suffered from their wounds until they died, some of them twenty or twenty-five years after the close of the war.—Harrisburg Patriot.

SAVED THE TROUBLE.

She had refused him.

The dull stare, the ashen lip, the trembling hand of the man who rose slowly and brushed the dust from his knees told the whole story.

"I perceive!"

There was a tinge of pity in her voice,—"that the unexpected exigencies of the occasion have robbed you of your usual facility"—

Her manner had an unmistakable kindness about it.

"In articulation. I therefore excuse you from saying, as is usual on such occasions, that your heart!"

She looked very sweet in her yellow silk waist and black skirt.

"'tis dead and cold. That you can never love again; that you have met and lost your only ideal; that death were thrice welcome. We"—

She beamed graciously.

"will consider it understood. You left your hat in the hall. No, this is the street door. Goodby."

It was the end. A very dazed man stood on the sidewalk. Far away a dog barked at the moon and a tramp nestled closer to a haystack, but otherwise the world was silent.—Detroit Tribune.

ARRANGING A BET.

Traveler—We are sure to have fine weather tomorrow.

Landlord—I bet it will rain.

Traveler—Very good. What will you bet?

Landlord—A bottle of wine if you like.

Traveler—What sort?

Landlord—A bottle of my Grunerberger.

Traveler—All right, the loser to drink it.—Fremdenblatt.

ACCOMMODATING.

Husband—After today I'm going to try a new plan with you. Every time you get a new dress it must be understood that I can invite my friends here to a little poker party and a merry time generally.

Wife (sweetly)—You can have them every night, dear, if you want to.—Truth.

JUST HIS LUCK.

"I hear Simpson had a streak of bad luck and has been losing money."

"Did he lose much?"

"About $10,000."

"How did it happen?"

"He fell down a coal hole that was left uncovered and wasn't hurt."—Detroit Free Press.

A MATTER OF TASTE.

Mrs. B.—I consider Mr. Jonson a nice fellow.

Mrs. A.—I don't. Why, he's not a bit like men who come to see me.

Mrs. B.—Well, that is nothing against him.—Vogue.

OBEYED.

Clerk—He told me to go to the devil.

Boss—And what did you do?

Clerk—I came right back to you, sir.

Truth.

SONG OF THE MYSTIC.

WHAT A MISTAKE MAY DO.

Mr. Graynes—Young man, was it you published the story this morning that I made a clear $50,000 in the wheat pit yesterday?

Reporter—Yes, sir. It was a clean scoop too.

Mr. Graynes (with a groan)—Clean scoop is the right name for it, young man! It was only $5,000, and when I went home this afternoon I found that my wife had seen the item and had spent the day buying lace and jewelry on a $50,000 basis!—Chicago Tribune.

A LOCAL APPLICATION.

Angelica Bellevue—And do you look so much like your brother?

Augustus Belletter—Dromio of Ephesus looked not more like Dromio of Syracuse.

Angelica Bellevue—I beg your pardon, what is the name of your friend in Syracuse? I have a cousin in Syracuse.—Brooklyn Life.

IT BELONGED TO HIM.

There was an immense sensation created at the M— station the other day, just previous to the starting of the afternoon express for Paris. The inspector was about to start the train, when a short, fat and purplish old gentleman trotted up to him and exclaimed:

"Wait a minute, will you, please, while I—"

"Impossible, sir!" interrupted the official, putting the whistle to his lips. "The train is overdue now."

"But you must wait!" cried the old gentleman excitedly. "There is a man's leg underneath the wheel."

"Good gracious! Who didn't you say so first? Where is he?" inquired the horror-stricken inspector. "Hold on there!"

And having stopped the train he hurried after the old gentleman, while a couple of porters jumped down on the line, amid the excitement of a number of spectators. After a short search one of the porters handed up a rush basket containing a large and fine looking leg of mutton.

"Thank you!" said the old gentleman, and seizing the basket he entered a first class smoking carriage.

"What do you mean, sir?" roared the exasperated inspector. "You said—"

"I said a man's leg was under the wheel, and so it was," interrupted the old gentleman. "I bought this leg and paid for it, and if it isn't mine I should like to know who it belongs to, that's all." Then the train moved on.—Figaro.

GIVE THEM A CALL.

WE ARE IN OUR NEW STABLE IN THE OPERA HOUSE BLOCK AND ARE WELL SUPPLIED WITH

NEW RIGS AND HORSES.

HAVE BEEN PURCHASED AND NOTHING BUT FIRST-CLASS TURNOUTS WILL LEAVE THE STABLE.

STANFORD, KY.